Work experience

I am a freelance trainer; consultant in the area of people, organizational and social development. I have been engaged-contracted by numerous national and international organizations on a short-term or long-term basis. I am also the founder and owner of consulting agency Magic Agency (2008-current) focused on creativity development of people and organizations and delivering business theatre training and events of large scale for different occasions. I have behind me more than 6000 participants from all three sectors, public, business, and nongovernmental. Some of the international training courses (the extensive list you have attached) I worked as a trainer/facilitator, within the YiA program or YiA; COE is:

- World Forum for Democracy – From participation to influence: can youth revitalize democracy? – Strasbourg, event and online learning platform facilitation from July-November. The youth sector of the Council of Europe, through the European Youth Foundation. Responsible for the facilitation (as part of the team) of 230 young participants.
- Be The Key – Empowering European Youth Workers through Conflict Management Skills, Sajan, Serbia, CULTURE GOES EUROPE (CGE) – Soziokulturelle Initiative Erfurt e.V. Germany
